DEDICATION

MRS. ELAINE TAYLOR

We, the senior class of Colerain High School, do dedicate this edition of the Yellow Jacket to MRS. ELAINE TAYLOR.

Because of the splendid example she has set before us with her Christian spirit of kindness and love to all students, we have all learned to admire and love her.

Her work with the glee club has added much to the enjoyment of our school days.

We especially appreciate her writing the words to our new Alma Mater.

Kenny is the boy you will always see
Winking at the girls and laughing with glee.

Nancy is really tops in neatness;
The seniors like her for her sweetness.

Bill is a boy in English four;
At the bell he's the first one out the door.

MARY ANN BYRD

Our friend Mary Ann is very nice.
Smile at her once; she smiles twice.

JAMES R. COBB

Worry little, study less is his idea of happiness.

Though in height she's small;
Her laughter rings from hall to hall.

Long of body, thin of frame, but everyone likes him just the same.

CLASS HISTORY

Our teachers for the first eight grades were as follows: first grade, Mrs. Miriam Saunders and Mrs. Simmons; second, Miss Ethel Mae Stafford and Mrs. Janice Fiske; third, Miss Jeannette Brumsey; fourth, Miss Cora Felton Bass; fifth, Mrs. Edith Freeman; sixth, Mrs. George Darden; seventh, Mr. Garth Doyel; and eighth, Mr. Henry T. Pulliam and Mr. Herbert Huggins.

Then came the big year! We were in high school. In September of 1955, we went into the ninth grade with twenty-eight in our class. Our homeroom teacher was Mr. William N. Fowler. We elected as our class officers: President, Robert White; Vice-President, Nancy Britt; Secretary, Lee Wynns; Treasurer, Pat Todd; and Reporter, Mary Beth Hughes. Willie Mae Bowen was our Freshman candidate for homecoming queen.

During that year, however, we spent most of our time getting adjusted to high school and had only one party.

When we sophomores returned to school in the fall of 1956, we felt more like "upperclassmen" in high school. Our homeroom teacher was Mrs. Janie K. Burke. Our class officers were: President, Bill Perry; Vice-President, Miles Dunlow; Secretary and Treasurer, Willie Mae Bowen; and Reporter, Mary Beth Hughes. Nancy Britt was our sophomore candidate for homecoming queen.

In September of 1956, we returned to school as juniors. Our homeroom teacher was Mr. Carl R. Britt.

We elected as our class officers: President, Bill Perry; Vice-President, Nell Pierce; Secretary, Willie Mae Bowen; and Treasurer, Lee Wynns. Our homecoming queen candidate was Virginia Pierce.

The high-light of the year came in April, when we gave the Junior-Senior Prom. We had been preparing for it almost all the year. The theme of our prom was "Underwater." When we had finished decorating for it, we felt we had done a job to be proud of.

Then in May, the seniors gave us a supper at Riverside. The seniors worked hard to make this a happy event for us, and we all enjoyed it.

Finally in September, 1958, we went into the senior class in high spirits. Mrs. Rhodes H. Pratt was our homeroom teacher and annual sponsor. The following were elected as our class officers: President, Virginia Pierce; Vice-President, Miles Dunlow; Secretary, Willie Mae Bowen; and Treasurer, Mary Ann Byrd.

In October we elected Nancy Britt, Willie Mae Bowen, and Beth Corbett as our senior candidates for homecoming queen. The homecoming queen was selected by popular vote and Beth Corbett was crowned the 1958-59 homecoming queen.

Our senior year was our busiest and happiest year. It was during this year we received our class rings. Our hardest job was publishing the yearbook. It required many days of hard work. Our annual staff was: Nell Pierce and Lee Wynns, Co-editors; Willie Mae Bowen and Mary Ann Byrd, Business Managers; Nancy Britt and Kenneth Britt, Sports Editors; Mary Beth Hughes, Picture Editor; and Pat Todd, Art Editor.

We entered high school with twenty-eight in our class. When we became seniors we had only eight candidates for graduation. While we were in high school, we had three different principals: Mr. Carl Mills, Mr. W. O. Fields, Jr., and Mr. Lee R. Hall.

Our schooling required much work, but we will all look back on our school days with fond memories.

THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the 1959 Senior class of Colerain High School, town of Colerain, county of Bertie, and state of North Carolina, do leave and bequeath the following items to the mentioned individuals below in the fond hope that these treasures will enrich the lives of these persons and so ennoble our beloved school.

JOHNNY BAKER leaves his ability to play baseball to Don Daniels.

WILLIE MAE BOWEN leaves her position on the basketball team to Alice Henry. Keep practicing, Alice.

BILL BRYANT leaves his ability to type, to Carl Gene Hughes. Keep your eyes off the typewriter, Carlos.

NANCY BRITT leaves her slim figure to Linda Uphold. Dieting is not the answer, Linda.

KENNY BRITT leaves his high grades in world history to Perry Forehand.

MARY ANN BYRD leaves her job of writing Mr. Britt's history questions on the board to Annette Perry.

JAMES R. COBB leaves his outstanding F.F.A. work to Bill Corbett. Carry on, Bill.

JIMMY DANIELS leaves his road map to Aulander, to Kenny Perry. Don't get on the wrong road, Kenny.

MILES DUNLOW leaves his ability to find his way around Windsor to Jerry Bunch.

FLETCHER HARRELL leaves his lay-ups in basketball to his sister, Molly. Practice hard on it, Molly.

MARY BETH HUGHES leaves her cheerleading sweater, to Jerrie Jenkins.

BILL PERRY leaves his U. S. history book to Mr. Britt.

NELL PIERCE leaves her bookkeeping table with Edward Cullipher to Linda Casper.

VIRGINIA PIERCE leaves her keen sense of humor to Edith Perry.

PAT TODD leaves her luck with the Perrytown boys to Brenda Phelps.

ROBERT WHITE leaves his ability to keep quiet to Randy Harrelle. Just keep your mouth shut, Randy.

LEE WYNNS leaves his map of Trap to Louis A. Cullipher. Don't get lost, Lou.

BETH CORBETT leaves her silly laugh to Peggy Daniels, who really doesn't need it.

Witnessed on June 2, 1959, by the Senior Class.

Dear ^{Butch} you, (this is out of the ordinary at least)

I can't write at the moment. You know why.
Just please remember the state of mind I'm in now.
Just remember that and make allowances.
I ain't gonna say a lot of words out of you know and you'll know my heart is filled with best wishes for you and your future.

I - - - - what! See then.

I want you to know that knowing you has been and shall always continue to be a wonderful experience. We've really had a lot of fun so far - . And I hope we will continue to.

You are telling something funny now and I want to hear it. I hate something else I like about you. You ~~get~~ come up with some of the funniest stories. (Shall I go on?)

What ever you plan to do, carwise I know you will be a success. I have faith in you.

I'm looking forward to the summer and fun.

Butch, you are wonderful. I don't know any other way to say it.
I've never written in a Bayfriends annual before so this may sound unusual.

I guess I'll stop now. I'm ~~not~~ going to miss out on something.

Shall I sign it?

I remain as now forever.

(I hope that as you like)

[I mean it to be good]

(I feel silly)
